C. Rewrite the passage using all the tips you have learned.

The poor very often have to work more than one job to make ends meet. It is not that there is no healthy food being sold, but that many of the poor do not have the money or time to shop for such food, let alone time to cook the meals. There is always fast food, which takes little time and money to buy or eat, but is extremely fattening. Time is money and these people are poor on both fronts. In the US, poor people, who have little to no money, make up the majority of overweight and obese people.
